The Athenaeum Chorale & music director Anthony DiCello are pleased to announce the 2015-2016 season of liturgical services and concerts sung at the Athenaeum of Ohio’s Chapel of St. Gregory the Great.

The Music & Liturgy at the Athenaeum series includes Sunday Vespers and Concerts presenting the finest liturgical and sacred choral masterpieces, many performed with the original instrumental accompaniment.

Information about the Athenaeum Chorale
Contact the Seminary Music Department
Music Office (513) 233-6138
Email: tdicello@athenaeum.edu
Website: www.athenaeum.edu
Beginning its thirty-sixth season, the Athenaeum Chorale was founded in the fall of 1980, and has continued to inspire and delight listeners and worshippers in performances of great choral masterworks and the sacred liturgical repertoire.

The entire season is held in the Athenaeum’s beautiful Italian Romanesque Chapel of St. Gregory the Great. Sung Vesper liturgies comprise the main offering of this year’s schedule. Each service includes choral repertoire from a variety of periods and traditions. Prelude music begins each service and is often presented by guest artists.

The annual Advent Service of Lessons and Carols will be held Monday, December 7. This popular and well attended service centers around the celebration of the patronal feast of Mary’s Immaculate Conception in the midst of the Advent season. Chants with handbells, traditional and new Advent carols for choir and congregation, beautiful Marian motets and scripture lessons read by members of the Athenaeum faculty draw record numbers of people to this beloved service each year.

Three Vespers with concerts are planned this season. On All Saints Day in November Gabriel Faure’s Requiem, for choir & organ will be sung, a carol concert at the Baptism of the Lord Vespers in January and in February the Stabat Mater by Emanuele d’Astorga for choir, soloists and strings will be performed.

We welcome your support for our 36th season and invite you to become a contributor to the Athenaeum Chorale. A contributors’ list will appear in each program.

Your financial assistance is essential. Your gift is needed now to ensure this season’s concerts and services. Only with your assistance can we continue our unique musical programs that have been acclaimed both enjoyable and inspiring.