

The Sacred Music Institute presents
BRIDGES OF BEAUTY AND FAITH:
Sacred Music in the Midst of Renewal

JULY 22 –24, 2026

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Schola Cantorum: Formation in the Art of Celebrating* | Dr. Kevin Vogt

This workshop will explore the character and mission of the lay choir in the post-conciliar Church, proposing a spiritual orientation and pedagogical framework for the practical work of parish choirs and liturgical singers.

A Gradual Approach to the Renewal of Sacred Music in the Mass* | Fr. Michael O'Connor, O.P.

This workshop will review the ideals of sacred music in the Mass and then consider practical ways to progressively grow towards the full implementation of those ideals in your parish, at the various levels of working with a pastor, a congregation, cantors and choirs.

Finding Your Voice* | Emalie Beach

Emalie Beach, founder of The Cantor Coach, presents an interactive workshop focused on the “Essential Toolkit:” three foundational vocal pillars that every singer needs. Through practical, hands-on strategies this workshop will help participants discover their healthiest sound and sing with newfound clarity and beauty. Whether a new singer or a seasoned veteran, participants will walk away with a roadmap to ensure your voice remains a clear, resonant vessel for the Word of God.
